About the Band

The Palmyra Eagle Community Band, was formed in 1993 through the efforts of Band Manager, Alice Ventura. There were 4 musicians present at the first rehearsal. The first concert was presented on June 14th, Flag Day, in the village park.. Through the years, membership has grown to about 30 members.

The members are of all ages from retirees (some of whom had not played their instruments since their school days) to college and high school students. They come from various communities in the area and as far away as Madison. Under the direction of "Mr. Ed" Pierce of Fort Atkinson, the musical selections range from marches to show tunes, popular melodies, to classical.

We encourage anyone interested in dusting off the old horn to join us. Rehearsal is Monday evening, 7:00 pm, at the high school band room. Our concert schedule includes venues such as parks, retirement homes, churches, etc. throughout the spring and summer. Usually, we have a break after the last park concert in August until after Labor Day. Then we begin to prepare for an October visit to Fairhaven and our two Holiday Concerts held in early December after which we break again for the holidays.

The band is all volunteer and supported by contributions from local businesses, civic groups, private donations and the band members themselves. We are an incorporated 501(c)3 non-profit, tax exempt organization. Donations can be mailed to: Palmyra-Eagle Community Band, Inc., P.O. Box 215, Palmyra, WI 53156-0215

For questions, information or to book a concert date, contact PECB President, Connie Sukowski at 262-485-2069 or e-mail: cjandptsukowski@gmail.com; or Director, Ed Pierce, at 920-563-5202 or email: elpnac@compufort.com.

Patriotic music in Honor of the United States of America

DON'T SIT UNDER THE APPLE TREE (Brown, Tobias & Stept, arr. Yoder)

I wrote my mother, I wrote my father, And now I'm writing you too. I'm sure of mother, I'm sure of father, And now I want to be sure of you.	CHORUS Don't sit under the apple tree with anyone else but me, Anyone else but me, anyone else but me, NO NO NO! Don't sit under the apple tree with anyone else but me Till I come marching home.
I just got word from a guy who heard From the guy next door to me, That a girl he met just loves to pet, And it fits you to a "T".

THIS IS THE ARMY, MISTER JONES (Irving Berlin, arr. Briegel)

Irving Berlin's song was part of an extremely successful Broadway show of the same name that opened on July 4, 1943. It later also became a movie. Berlin donated all the profits from the show and sheet music after expenses to the Army Emergency Relief Fund, which raised nearly 10-million dollars from it. The song humorously mocks the 'softness' of new recruits.

(<http://www.archives.gov/publications/prologue/1996/summer/irving-berlin-2.html>)

A bunch of frightened rookies were list'ning filled with awe They listened while a sergeant was laying down the law They stood there at attention, their faces turning red The sergeant looked them over and this is what he said	This is the Army, Mister Green! We like the barracks nice and clean You had a housemaid to clean your floor But she won't help you out any more Do what the buglers command They're in the Army and not in a band
This is the Army, Mister Jones! No private rooms or telephones You had your breakfast in bed before But you won't have it there any more	This is the Army, Mister Brown! You and your baby went to town She had you worried but this is war And she won't worry you anymore

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME (intro & ending)

"Who's On First" Mike & Charlotte Jones

BOOGIE WOOGIE BUGLE BOY (Raye & Prince, arr. Story. Jim Neist, trumpet solo)

GLENN MILLER IN CONCERT (arr. Murtha): (Includes: In the Mood, Tuxedo Junction, A String of Pearls, Little Brown Jug, Pennsylvania 6-5000)

WE'LL MEET AGAIN (arr. Dr. Nicholas Contorno).

"We'll Meet Again" is a 1939 song made famous by British singer Vera Lynn. The song is one of the most famous songs of the Second World War era, and resonated with soldiers going off to fight and their families and sweethearts. The assertion that "we'll meet again" is optimistic, as many soldiers did not survive to see their loved ones again. Indeed, the meeting place at some unspecified time in the future would have been seen by many who lost loved ones to be heaven. It has been recorded by dozens of artists from the Byrds and Barry Manilow, to Johnny Cash. This song version was arranged by local composer, Dr. Nicholas Contorno, and was dedicated to the PECB: "For 'Mr. ED' and the Palmyra-Eagle Community Band"

Please join the band in singing this classic song--lyrics are on the next page.

FANFARE

SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY V2 (Les Brown, arr. Jim Neist)

Les Brown and His Band of Renown, with Doris Day as vocalist, had a hit record with the song, Day's first #1 hit, in 1945. The song's release coincided with the end of WWII in Europe and became the unofficial homecoming theme for many veterans. This version was arranged by Palmyra-Eagle Community Band's own Jim Neist.

Gonna take a sentimental journey Gonna set my heart at ease Gonna make a sentimental journey To renew old memories	Seven, that's the time we leave, at seven I'll be waitin' up for heaven Countin' every mile of railroad track That takes me back
Got my bag, got my reservation Spent each dime I could afford Like a child in wild anticipation Long to hear that "All aboard"	Never thought my heart could be so yearny Why did I decide to roam? Gotta take that sentimental journey Sentimental journey home

ARMED FORCES MARCH

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR (Reid & Kaye, arr. Yoder)

10 days after the Pearl Harbor attack on December 7, 1941, Don Reid and Sammy Kaye recorded this classic WWII patriotic song based on the popular war cry, and it became an instant hit with the public. "Its immediate popularity spawned a wealth of militant,-- occasionally semi-racist--anthems such as 'We did it before and we'll do it again', 'Goodbye Mama, I'm off to Yokohama', 'The Son-of-a-Gun who picks on Uncle Same', 'Let's Put the Axe to the Axis', and 'Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition'" (<http://library.umkc.edu/spec-col/ww2/pearlharbor>)

History in ev'ry century records an act that lives forevermore. We'll recall, as into line we fall, the thing that happened on Hawaii's shore.	Let's REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR As we go to meet the foe. Let's REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR As we did the Alamo. We will always remember how they died for Liberty. Let's REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR And go on to victory."

We remember

Ice cream social honors World War II vets in our midst

By Jean Cislér
CONTRIBUTOR

They came from Elkhorn and Brodhead, from Dousman, Sussex and Mukwonago, from Palmyra, Eagle, East Troy and Milwaukee. They came with canes, walkers, wheelchairs and one of the oldest veterans, Bob Baker, came in a special ambulance — his family raised the money so that he could be there. His is one of the many stories of the men and women who came by invitation or by word of mouth to the Eagle Historical Society and Palmyra-Eagle Community Band's concert and ice cream social honoring and remembering the servicemen of World War II.

Not that any war is worth one life lost, but somehow this war was one of the more memorable ones because it has been the most recorded. World War II veterans have stories of sadness, watching their friends die on the battlefield and of glory — marching through liberated countries far away from home.

Almost 30 men came to Eagle to be honored and entertained at the July 10 event. The scene in the park was reminiscent of a USO Canteen with free ice cream and cake. Another food wagon offered additional free food.

Vintage field equipment and a World War II jeep were also on hand. Each veteran lined up to sign in where they received a nametag and a special dog tag hanging on a red, white and blue ribbon that said "Honored Veteran." Each veteran had his or her picture taken in front of a poster with pictures of area servicemen from World War II.

The program, headlined "The '40s - A Sentimental Journey," began appropriately with "Fanfare A Sentimental Journey" featuring music from Les Brown and his Band of Renown and vocals from Doris Day. The Palmyra-Eagle Community Band's own Jim Niest arranged the version based on Day's first No. 1 hit, which was released in 1945 coinciding with the end of the war in Europe. The song became the unofficial homecoming theme for many veterans.

Following that was "Armed Forces March," including the theme songs for all branches of the service. As the community band played "The Star Spangled Banner," the honor guard from the Eagle American Legion entered, presenting the colors. All of the World War II veterans who were able immediately rose to their feet, removing their hats and did not take their seats again until the honor guard had exited.

The band's program included songs from the '40s, Glenn Miller favorites and great old war songs such as Der Fuehrer's "Face," which the audience was encouraged to join in singing.

Old World to recreate life from Laura Ingalls Wilder days

Area residents will get a chance to live the adventures of Laura Ingalls Wilder at Old World Wisconsin's "Laura Ingalls Wilder Days PLUS Farm Power" on July 23-24 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Visitors to the museum of late 19th- and early 20th-century Wisconsin rural immigrant life can try many of the same activities as Laura and her family, many directly from the pages of the beloved "Little House" books.

"This is one of our favorite events," said museum Director Dawn St.

George. "Children visit in costumes and bonnets for the look-alike pageant. Families enjoy doing laundry by hand, jumping in the haystacks, working as apprentices in the wagon shop or hand-cranking homemade ice cream. They can also see the many ways that farmers threshed grain."

Other visitor activities include: a hymn sing, seeing oxen at work, helping in the gardens using 19th-century tools, witnessing the power of hit-and-miss engines, flailing grain, trying a fanning mill and winnowing basket to remove the chaff from the wheat and seeing a dress fitting, showing that the corset has been maligned through the ages.

There's plenty to do after hours on Saturday as well. Visitors may enjoy a farmhand buffet from 4 to 7 p.m. Tickets are $13 for adults, $6 for children 5-12 and free for children younger than 4. Also on Saturday, the museum will host a barn dance from 5 to 8 p.m. Reservations are recommended; available online through Friday, July 22, at noon. Admission is $8 for adults $5 for children 5-17.

For more information visit www.oldworldwisconsin.org or call (262) 594-6300.

Old World Wisconsin general admission is $16 for adults, $14 for students and senior citizens, 65 and older, $9 for children 5-17 or $43 families, (up to two adults and two or more dependent children five-17). Admission includes tram transportation.

Interspersed in the afternoon's concert were simulated announcements from station WEGL in Eagle, beginning with the dark announcement of the bombing of Pearl Harbor with a list of the many human casualties and the planes and ships that were lost. Men were encouraged to enlist and fight for their country.

Other announcements urged people to join the war effort by buying bonds, saving on items like sugar, tires, lard and nylon stockings, donating blood at blood drives and other ways to help "Our Boys" across the pond.

The event featured other sing-a-longs and a popular favorite was the exhibition of a swing dance presented by Miss Catey and Mr. Wood from the Fred Astaire Dance Studio of Wales.

At one point the veterans answered "mail call," reading letters of thanks written by local school children.

The afternoon ended with results of the "war bond drive." The war bonds in this case were raffle tickets for the first prize detailed woodcarving, A Wood Spirit, (carved and donated by Bob Younger) and CDs of Big Band Songs.

Though the day was quite warm and somewhat humid, attendees didn't seem to mind for this trip into the past. Even the rain held off until another day.

Ed Pierce, Director
Palmyra/Eagle Band

Dear Ed,

We, the members of the Fairhaven Resident Council, congratulate you for the splendid concert which the band gave a large, enthusiastic crowd of Fairhaven residents and friends on Monday evening, October 17th.

We anticipated that we were in store for another scintillating performance—and once again, as the Palmyra/Eagle band has done regularly in the past, our high expectations were richly fulfilled.

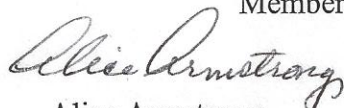

The choice of selections, from “When the lights go on again/all over the world” to the final, eagerly anticipated, John Philip Sousa march, the band gave us a rousing concert.

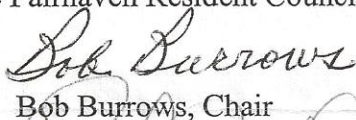

We enjoyed your accomplished conducting, your occasional anecdotes, and your great voice in leading our singing. We also appreciated your recognition of the special contributions of individual band members—and, finally, your introduction of the unusual instrument of jingles when bounced on the floor.

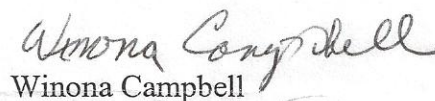

Thanks to you and the entire Palmyra/Eagle band for another splendid concert!

Dear Fellow Band Member,

Most of you know that just over two years ago I was diagnosed with breast cancer. What you may not know is that I wrote a book about it. I dedicated the book to the reader and to cancer for the positive influence it had on my life. I titled the book The Upside of Down.

The business of publishing has undergone a major shift in this fast paced ever changing world. Authors are now expected to not only write the story, but to become the primary marketers and promoters of that work.

So, in the spirit of shameless self-promotion I'd like to offer you all the opportunity to preorder The Upside of Down for the introductory rate of $12.00. (The printed price will be $13.95). The book goes to press on November 11 and has a delivery date slated for just before Christmas.

I'd like to give you the opportunity of owning a limited first edition. I'll even hand sign each copy and pay any applicable shipping and taxes. Simply complete the order form attached below and you will not only receive a book that has been a labor of love, you'll know that you've helped me in a very real way achieve a lifelong goal.

Thank you for supporting my dream!

With warmest regards,

Kristine Dexheimer

I've also enclosed an additional order form for you to share.
